

Points of Interest

- 1 Community Bandstand
On the Square
- 2 Decatur Recreation Center
231 Sycamore St.
Sports and recreation facility, providing team sports, afterschool programs and classes for all ages to the community.
- 3 High House
Corner of N. Candler and Sycamore streets.
First two-story house in Decatur, listed in the National Register of Historic Places.
- 4 Methodist Chapel
Corner of Sycamore Street and Commerce Drive.
Made of Stone Mountain granite, occupies the same property as the original log church, founded in 1826.
- 5 Historic Sycamore Street
Once a stagecoach route, characterized by its fine houses – some of the largest in Decatur.
- 6 Glenwood Estates Neighborhood
Neighborhood established in 1925, featuring large lots and natural landscaping.
- 7 Glennwood Elementary School
440 E. Ponce de Leon Ave.
- 8 Old Courthouse on the Square
101 E. Court Square
Granite walls and great columns of the original structure built in 1898. Now a welcome center and home of DeKalb Historical Society.

Tour No. 3 • Sycamore & More

Decatur Walking Tours

This tour is one of several self-guided Decatur Walking Tours planned for this year. The tours are designed to:

- promote walking as a safe, convenient exercise for residents, visitors and working people in Decatur.
- familiarize participants with local restaurants and retail outlets as well as municipal and historical points of interest.

The Decatur Walking Tours are sponsored by the City of Decatur and the Decatur Development Authority.

For more information about other recreational opportunities, contact Decatur Recreation and Community Services Department, 404/377-0494.

For information about other community events, contact the Decatur Development Authority, 404/371-8386, or visit www.decaturga.com

City of Decatur

Walking Tour

Tour Intensity Level

|  |   |         |
|--|---|---------|
| Level 1"Stretch Your Legs"  |   |         |
| Level 2"Quicken Your Pulse" |   |         |
| Level 3"Challenge Yourself" | ✓ | 4 miles |

Tour Directions

Beginning at the Community Bandstand on the Square:

- Travel east through MARTA Plaza to Sycamore Street.
- Follow Sycamore Street east, until it curves to the left (north) at the Avondale MARTA Station.
- Cross E. Ponce de Leon. Sycamore Street becomes Sycamore Drive. Continue north.
- Turn left (west) on Fairview Street.
- Turn left (south) on Ridgeland Avenue.
- Turn soft right (south) on Sycamore Drive.
- Turn right (east) on East Ponce de Leon Avenue.
- Turn right (north) on Glendale Avenue.
- Turn right (east) on Glenn Circle.
- Follow Glenn Circle as it curves to the left back to Glendale Avenue.
- Turn left (south) on Glendale Avenue.
- Turn right on E. Ponce de Leon Avenue.
- Follow E. Ponce de Leon Avenue west, returning to Decatur Square.